

WISE MEN

Jesus is the Gift

Gift-giving is one of the joys of Christmas. Even the wise men brought meaningful gifts to Jesus—treasures fit for a king, and practical support for Mary and Joseph during their escape from Herod.

Today, our culture still celebrates what we're good at—our talents, skills, and achievements. Maybe you're great at math, painting, or working with people. Sometimes this focus makes us feel like we have to offer something to Jesus to be accepted.

We think we need to earn His love through talent, effort, or service. But when we feel unworthy or compare ourselves to others, we can begin to pull away—praying less, reading less, even avoiding church.

But the manger tells a different story. Jesus came to be approachable. His name means “God with us.” He desires a relationship, not performance. Of course He enjoys the gifts we bring, but they're not required.

Imagine if a friend expected a gift every time you saw them. That wouldn't feel like a real friendship. Jesus isn't like that. The wisemen gave out of inspiration—not obligation.

This Christmas, remember: Jesus delights in who you are, not what you bring. After all—He is the gift.
